As a short person, every long dress I buy definitely needs to be hemmed 😊 Nassreen did wonderful work on my bridesmaids dress, and was able to get it done faster than I anticipated! Plus, the dress now has nice big pockets ❤️ ❤️

Nassreen is phenomenal. I met with her for my first fitting and planning, and she was wonderful. She is kind, experienced, thorough, and creative. I came to her with what I thought might be a crazy idea, and she worked with me to create a perfect plan, and she is going above and beyond to make it happen. I can't wait to see the final product! I would absolutely recommend her services.

My mom and I met with Nassreen this past weekend for my wedding dress fitting. She was very professional and is clearly very experienced with alterations. She was professional and made me feel very comfortable during the fitting. Her studio is clean and comfortable. Overall, it was a very nice experience. I will update this post with results of the alterations, but I am very excited!

I went to I Do Wedding Alterations to get my prom dress altered, and I was more than happy with the result. She was very kind and easy to work with. In these pictures my dress is pinned, not actually altered yet, but the fit and the build of the dress felt so much more intact with my body. Thank you so much!!

I had two dresses altered here and had a wonderful experience! The first dress was a new wedding gown that needed some minor alterations. The second was my mom's wedding gown that I had altered into a new dress for me to wear! That was a bigger task but it still turned out so amazing thanks to her talent! Also, it was fun chatting with her and the studio is clean. Highly recommend!

I would highly recommend Nassreen at I Do Wedding Alterations for your big day! Her communication is clear and pricing is transparent. I had a wonderful experience getting my bridesmaid's dress for a friend's wedding hemmed, and Nassreen made great alteration suggestions I had not considered that really elevated the look of the dress. I Do is definitely now my go-to for special event alterations.

I had a wonderful experience with this seamstress. Nassreen did an impeccable job on the alterations of my mother -of-the- bride dress. The double-layered hemline needed to be shortened several inches and it turned out beautifully. Nassreen is kind, professional, and does amazing work. I highly recommend her services!

I can't thank Nassreen enough for the alterations she did to my mother-of-the-groom dress. I had ordered a custom dress online and when it came, the bodice was much too long, and the wedding was a month away. Nassreen was able to fit me in and do the alteration quickly - I picked the dress up today and it is PERFECT! She was wonderful to work with.

I bought my dress online for my dear friend's wedding. I had to take measurements in order to purchase it, so I thought it would fit well enough. Boy, was I mistaken! I am no fashionista, but even I could tell that it wasn't right. Thankfully I found this place with a Google search. She responded quickly to my request for an appointment, was here when I arrived, she's very gracious, soft-spoken, and obviously very professionally experienced. She took my saggy baggy way too big dress and tucked it in places I never thought would make a difference, but by the time she was done, it looked like a proper dress! I'm excited to pick it up in 5 weeks.

I met Nasser very last minute after having a bad experience with another seamstress. Nasser was incredibly flexible and willing to work with me. She opened a last minute spot in her calendar to help me. I went, we met, she understood exactly how I wanted my dress to fit me and she exceeded my expectations. My dress fits like a gloveeee!!! She also altered my mom's dress and she also loved it. I would recommend her because she is patient, flexible and incredibly knowledgeable. Altering my dress was real work and absolutely nailed it.

After having an awful experience with David Bridals and having me entire dress ruined. 3 weeks before the wedding I had to buy a new dress and needed alterations done ASAP. After much searching and several review reading- I discovered "I Do Wedding Alterations." Not only was Nassreen sweet and kind, her work was absolutely amazing. My wedding was done in church therefore my dress needed some modest alterations. Nassreen altered my neckline, covered my sleeves up more and covered the back. I am so thankful for Nassreen and her beautiful work. You truly made me feel like a bride.

Nassreen is an exceptional seamstress who excels in her craft. Her professionalism, punctuality, and outstanding customer service set her apart. The bustle she created was impeccably sewn, and she provided clear instructions on how to attach and detach it for the wedding. Her alterations, including taking in the sides and adjusting the straps, were executed flawlessly. After receiving my altered dress, I noticed a small modification I wanted for the v-neck. Despite it being the week of my wedding, Nassreen accommodated me the very next day. She efficiently addressed my concerns, completing the additional alteration in just 30 minutes. Her flexibility and responsiveness were truly appreciated. For anyone seeking a skilled, reliable, and customer-oriented seamstress, I wholeheartedly recommend Nassreen. Her expertise and dedication ensure your dress will be perfect for your special day.

I had a wonderful experience with Nassreen! Her home studio was very welcoming and it was enjoyable talking with her. I went in with a dress I had purchased off the rack that was too small and needed a lot of adjustments. Nassreen was patient, polite, and professional and listened to my concerns and wants about my dress. Since it was too small, she recommended a corset back. However, my dress had pearl buttons running all the way from the upper back and down the train, and I didn't want to lose that detail. She was able to use extra fabric and lace from sleeves that we removed to add panels on the sides instead of the corset, and they were done so well and blended perfectly! Considering the dress was lace and had beading, I was amazed with the result. She was also able to remove some unwanted beading, add a bustle, and hem the dress. I fully trusted her opinions and suggestions, and felt her years of experience come through with the alterations done on my dress. She was even kind enough to make a last minute adjustment during my dress pick-up appointment! I was able to wear it and enjoy it my entire wedding night. I highly recommend I Do Alterations!

I reached out to Nassreen before I had even picked out a wedding dress to schedule a tailoring appointment with her. She was able to give me a date to have the dress by (our consultation) in order to have it completed comfortably in time for my wedding, with as little stress as possible. With that date already picked out, I was able to move ahead with finding the perfect dress. When it came time for our actual consultation, things also went well: Nassreen was very knowledgeable and I feel really confident in leaving my wedding dress in her care. I ordered my dress as a custom build from Etsy, and was really worried about its quality and if the measurements would be correct. There are a few things to tweak, but Nassreen knew exactly what to look for and how to fix them. I really liked that she had a few ideas on how to bustle my dress so we could keep the silhouette as simple as possible. I liked that she was willing to point out what was made well and what needed a little bit of work on the dress from her perspective. She works out of her personal home, but at no point was that uncomfortable. She had a private changing area available, her working studio locks from the inside, and overall the privacy and professionalism was entirely fine. I also think the cost for her work is fair. You might be able to find somebody cheaper if that's the only thing you're concerned about, but I think her prices are entirely reasonable and reflect her skill, experience, and professionalism.

Finally returned from my wedding/honeymoon, and all I can say is how happy and grateful I am for Nassreen being able to do my two dresses (wedding and reception) perfectly!! I felt beautiful and comfortable in them and with the added bustle to both, I was able to move around as needed and received compliments from beginning to end!

I bought a dress that was so huge on me. Nassreen did the most beautiful work to my dress. My dress has multiple layers! Lace, embroidery, and lots of detail. She customised the fit and each layer is flawless. Not once did I feel rushed by her! I cannot wait to wear my dress on my wedding day! I feel like it was custom designed for me! It looks exquisite. Thank you so much Nassreen!

Nassreen was a pleasure to work with. My dress required quite a bit of work: addition of bra cups, reducing length, bringing in the side, and letting out at the arm. After the initial fitting and alterations, I went to try on the dress, and it needed some very minor changes. Nassreen made the changes on the spot and in under 10 minutes. By the time I left, the dress fit perfectly. Highly recommend her.
